Temporary Residency Application Procedure

Submitting Application and Required Documents

Submitting Document

Online Document Submission System for Temporary Residency Application

After preliminary analysis on the documents submitted by the applicant online, applicant will be informed of the assessment result and the date for filing a formal temporary residency application

OR

Making Appointment for Filing Application

Applicants may make an appointment in one of the following ways:

1. Online Appointment Booking System
2. Applicant / person authorised by the applicant with signed authorisation letter visiting IPIM and reserve a date for filing temporary residency application;
3. In the event the applicant has already prepared all required documents, applicant may take a number tag at IPIM and file temporary residency application on the same day (applications are accepted on a first-come-first-serve basis due to limited daily availability).

Approval Procedure

Application Successfully Submitted

- IPIM consult relevant supervising departments according to the analysis on the application.
- After filing an application, applicant may provide IPIM supplementary documents that will help analysing the application, or documents of changes in his/her situation if there is any update; while IPIM is analysing the identity, eligibility and application grounds of an applicant based on the available documents and information, IPIM will send letters to this applicant requesting he/she for more supporting documents that will facilitate the application analysis.

Online Enquiry on Investment Residency Application Status

(I)Initial stage: Revision of whether all required documents have been submitted.

(II)Analysation stage: General analysation of information and to know if more information is needed.

(III) Investigation/ verification stage: Identity information, grounds for application, qualifications, legal grounds and legitimacy of the applicant will be investigated or verified.

(IV) Supplementary information: IPIM has already sent notification(s) to the applicant and request more supporting documents or explanation. Applicant should reply as soon as possible.

(V) Approval stage: No further document or explanation is needed in this stage and applicant should wait for the result patiently.

(VI) Result notification: The result of your application is released and IPIM has sent out the notification letter.

Remark: It is very common that investigation/verification, supplementary documents explanation might need to be carried out again to complete the application procedure. Therefore, the progress will back and forth to Stage III (Investigation/verification stage) or Stage IV (Supplementary information) or Stage V (Approval stage).

Notification of Result

- Access the Online Appointment System of the Residency and Stay Affairs Department of the Macao Public Security Police Force (new application / renewal application / application for extension to family dependents)
- Bring along the notification letter issued by IPIM and visit the Residency and Stay Affairs Department of the Macao Public Security Police Force to apply for temporary residency permit. Applicants may call 2872 5488 or email to sminfo@fsm.gov.mo for enquiries.
- After obtaining the above mentioned temporary residency permit, please visit the Macao SAR Identification Bureau to apply for non-permanent Macao SAR Resident Identity Card. Applicants may call 2837 0777 or 2837 0888, or email to info@dsi.gov.mo for enquiries.

2025/04/25