Temporary Residency Application Procedure

Submitting Document Making Appointment for Filing Application OR Submitting Application and Required Online Document Submission System for Applicants may make an appointment in one Temporary Residency Application of the following ways: 1. Online Appointment Booking System 2. Applicant / person authorised by the Documents applicant with signed authorisation letter After preliminary analysis the on visiting IPIM and reserve a date for filing documents submitted by the applicant temporary residency application; 3. In the event the applicant has already online, applicant will be informed of prepared all required documents, applicant the assessment result and the date for may take a number tag at IPIM and file temporary residency application on the filing a formal temporary residency same day (applications are accepted on a application first-come-first-serve basis due to limited daily availability). Application Successfully Submitted IPIM consult relevant supervising departments according to the analysis on the application. After filing an application, applicant may provide IPIM supplementary documents that will help analysing the application, or documents of changes in his/her situation if there is any update; while IPIM is analysing the identity, eligibility and application grounds of an applicant based on the available documents and information, IPIM will send letters to this applicant requesting he/she for more supporting documents that will facilitate the application analysis. Approval Procedure Online Enquiry on Investment Residency Application Status (I)Initial (II)Analysation stage: stage: (III) Investigation/ (IV) Supplementary (V) Approval stage: Revision of whether General analysation of verification stage: information: No further information and to Identity information. IPIM has already sent required document or grounds for application, documents have know if more notification(s) to the explanation is qualifications, legal been submitted. information is needed. applicant and request needed in this stage grounds and legitimacy more supporting and applicant should wait for the result of the applicant will be documents or explanation. Applicant patiently. investigated or verified. should reply as soon as possible. (VI) Result notification: The result of your application is released and IPIM has sent out the notification letter. Remark: It is very common that investigation/verification, supplementary documents explanation might need to be carried out again to complete the application procedure. Therefore, the progress will back and forth to Stage III (Investigation/verification stage) or Stage IV (Supplementary information) or Stage V (Approval stage). Access the Online Appointment System of the Residency and Stay Affairs Department of the Notification of Result Macao Public Security Police Force (new application / renewal application / application for extension to family dependents) Bring along the notification letter issued by IPIM and visit the Residency and Stay Affairs Department of the Macao Public Security Police Force to apply for temporary residency permit. Applicants may call 2872 5488 or email to sminfo@fsm.gov.mo for enquiries. After obtaining the above mentioned temporary residency permit, please visit the Macao SAR Identification Bureau to apply for non-permanent Macao SAR Resident Identity Card. Applicants

may call 2837 0777 or 2837 0888, or email to info@dsi.gov.mo for enquiries.